

Possible Tulsa Tours

Gilcrease Museum Tour – The

Thomas Gilcrease Institute of American History and Art, commonly known as Gilcrease Museum, located in Tulsa, Okla., is one of the country's best facilities for the preservation and study of American art and history. The museum houses the world's largest and most comprehensive collection of art and artifacts of the American West, including an unparalleled collection of Native American art and material. One of the largest collections of Remington and Russell bronzes and painting with breathtaking Thomas Moran landscape originals! Lunch in the Restaurant at Gilcrease with beautiful view of the Osage Hills.

Philbrook Museum Tour –

In 1938 Waite Phillips surprised Tulsans with the announcement of his gift of the 72-room mansion and surrounding 23 acres of grounds as an art center for the city of Tulsa. The vision first made possible by Waite and Genevieve Phillips is now one of America's finest art museums. The integrity of the original residence remains intact while later additions to the facility and gardens complete this classic Tulsa attraction. Serving over 160,000 visitors annually, Philbrook has become a poignant testimony to Tulsa's past while building a shining example of this city's bright future. What began as an unprecedented gift to the community of Tulsa by the Phillips family continues today through the generosity of Philbrook Members and donors. The museum offers three types of docent-led tours offers the beautiful art galleries highlighting the Italian Renaissance and Baroque painting and sculpture, a tour of the 23 acre master gardens or historical guide through oil baron Waite Phillips home while viewing and discussing the architectural features of the Italian Renaissance Revival style villa.

Tulsa City Bus Tour and Lunch in the Tulsa Deco District

Hear about and see the wonderful art deco architecture of Tulsa, known as the "terra-cotta city" for its elaborate ornate buildings from the 1920s. Only New York and Miami have more art deco buildings than Tulsa! Imagine visiting the private tunnel of oil baron Waite Phillips that he used to walk between his luxury penthouse apartment in the Philcade Tower to his opulent office at the top of the Philtower. Have a nice lunch at The Vault's upper level Tom Tom Room, built in 1958 the First national Auto Bank and world's largest auto bank with six drive through lanes, is now a wonderful classic American restaurant.
